

I would ask that the FCC give a favorable vote to petition RM-10867. The currently required proficiency of Morse Code at the intermediate level serves no valuable purpose and is often a roadblock to many individuals that want to obtain their General license under today's structure. Placing this code requirement at the highest level is more appropriate. Thanks for your consideration.